

Bottomline Launches Real-time Dashboards to Streamline Corporate Cash Management

Critical Information Just a 'Click' Away with Easy-to-Customize User Experience

PORTSMOUTH, NH – September 11, 2009 – Bottomline Technologies (NASDAQ: EPAY), a leading provider of collaborative payment, invoice and document automation solutions, today announced powerful new tools for its WebSeries® Global Cash Management platform, enabling faster access to critical information through real-time, user-customizable dashboards.

With this new functionality, banks can provide corporate clients with one-click access to flexible cash management and reporting functionality through user-friendly navigation bars. Corporate clients can easily customize dashboard views to create a 'view' of real-time information across multiple bank accounts. Information such as transaction detail, a consolidated view across payables, as well as account activity and available balances can be presented in real-time to the corporate user upon log in. 'Drill-downs' enable a more granular level of information to be accessed, without having to leave the dashboard, which makes the application more efficient and easier to use.

"Enabling corporate clients to create highly-personalized dashboards provides a more unique experience for the end user," said Eric Campbell, Chief Technology Officer of Bottomline Technologies. "The introduction of powerful new tools such as these is representative of our ability to bring to market functionality that creates competitive advantages for banks and financial institutions."

To get to market quickly with a high-volume domestic and international payments capability, banks and financial institutions around the world rely on Bottomline's award-winning WebSeries Global Cash Management platform. A single platform for managing payments and providing real-time cash management reporting, WebSeries delivers the security, reliability and rich functionality necessary to deliver the products and user experience required to strengthen customer relationships and develop new markets.
